1.0 Purpose

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Meridian Credit Union (“Meridian”) has adopted this Director Nomination and Election Process Policy (this “Policy”) to establish a transparent, fair, and consistent framework for the nomination and election of directors to the Board of Meridian. It outlines the roles, responsibilities, and procedures that govern the recruitment, assessment, and election of qualified persons to the position of director, in accordance with the Credit Unions and Caisses Populaires Act, 2020 (the “Act”), its regulations, the Financial Services Regulatory Authority (“FSRA”) rules, Meridian’s By-Law No. 1 and principles of good governance. This policy supports Meridian’s commitment to Board renewal, diversity, and accountability, and ensures that Members are provided with a clear and equitable process for participating in the election of Board Directors.

2.0 Guiding Principles

- 2.1 The Board acknowledges the importance of its role in ensuring effective succession planning and in having policies to enable the recruitment, nomination, evaluation, selection and election processes to occur in a consistent and fair manner.
- 2.2 The Board is responsible for establishing a Nominating Committee to act independently in its oversight of these processes. For greater clarity, from the commencement of the Nomination Period (as herein defined) to the conclusion of the nomination process, the Nominating Committee shall work independently from the Board.
- 2.3 Meridian aims to have a Board composition of qualified candidates that is also reflective of the communities served by Meridian and aligned with Board Policy with regards to Diversity, Equity and Inclusiveness (as defined in Board Governance Policy #1 s. 9.4).

3.0 Role of the Nominating Committee

- 3.1 The Nominating Committee oversees the director nomination and election process outlined in this Policy.
- 3.2 The Nominating Committee may engage external advisors, as needed or deemed appropriate, to assist the Committee, at its request, with the recruitment, review of applications, interview and/or background checks of the candidates.
- 3.3 The Nominating Committee may engage the CEO as follows: (1) obtaining CEO input in the development of Director Selection Criteria; (2) providing anonymized summaries of the Qualified Candidates who will be interviewed by the Committee; and (3) inviting the CEO to meet with Recommended Nominees prior to the AGM.

3.4 If a member of the Nominating Committee finds her/himself in a real or perceived conflict of interest situation with respect to one of the candidates, the member will disclose, in writing, to the Committee Chair the nature and extent of his/her interest. The Committee Chair will ask to have the conflict recorded in the minutes of Committee meeting. In addition, the Committee member will not attend the interview(s) of the candidate. The Committee member will neither participate in any deliberations or discussions, nor vote on the recommendation of the candidate and the Committee Chair will ask that this process be recorded in the minutes of the Committee meeting.

4.0 Role of the Returning Officer

- 4.1 The Returning Officer is appointed by the Board and provides ongoing administrative and functional assistance to the Nominating Committee and to candidates in order to ensure the integrity and effectiveness of the nomination and election process, including by:
- a) maintaining a pool of candidates who have been identified by Directors and Management as potential candidates for future elections, as required;
 - b) providing information to and assisting candidates in understanding the nomination and election processes, as required;
 - c) receiving applications and conducting initial reviews;
 - d) making recommendations and providing advice to the Nominating Committee regarding the validity of applications, including the basis for rejected them, and candidate eligibility; and
 - e) supporting and assisting the Nominating Committee throughout its processes, including communicating with candidates on behalf of the Committee or its Chair.

5.0 Candidate Recruitment

- 5.1 Candidate recruitment may be undertaken through such processes as:
- a) Ongoing identification of potential qualified candidates by Directors and Management of Meridian;
 - b) Placement of appropriate signage in Meridian’s branches and offices;
 - c) Publication on Meridian’s website and social media;
 - d) Advertisement in professional associations (e.g. Women on Board) and governance educational institutions (e.g. ICD); and
 - e) Committee advisor searches.

6.0 Nomination Process

- 6.1 Notice of Nomination Period –The nomination period shall allow a minimum of fifteen (15) calendar days for the receipt of applications (the “Nomination Period”). The Returning Officer shall give notice of the Nomination Period to all of Meridian’s Members of record and the notice shall be posted on Meridian’s website and shall include:
- a) an announcement that an election of directors is to take place, specifying the number of positions which are to be filled, and instructions relating to the submission of an application; and
 - b) the beginning and end dates of the Nomination Period.
- 6.2 Validity of Applications – To be valid, applications received from the Membership must be in the form prescribed by the Nomination Committee, contain the information and accompanying documents outlined in the application package, and be received by the end of the Nomination Period. The Nominating Committee has full and unfettered discretion to reject an application, based on the recommendation of the Returning Officer pursuant to his/her duties under s. 4.0 above, including on the following basis:

- a) the information provided by the applicant is incomplete, false, or misleading, or the application has not been received within the Nomination Period;
- b) the applicant is not a Member “In Good Standing” as such status is defined in section 1.01(m) of Meridian’s By-Law No. 1;
- c) a real or perceived conflict of interest (collectively, a “Conflict of Interest”) exists, in accordance with s. 6.3 below, that would prevent the applicant, if elected, from properly discharging their duties as a Director; or
- d) the applicant is an individual that, if elected, may not act honestly, in good faith, and in the best interests of Meridian; or
- e) the applicant does not comply with Meridian’s legal or regulatory requirements including, but not limited to, eligibility requirements of Directors set out in section 83 of the Act and is not a disqualified individual pursuant to section 84 of the Act and section 29.(1) of O. Reg 105/22.

The Committee Chair and/or the Returning Officer will notify the applicant of the rejection of the application within 48 hours of the Committee’s decision.

6.3 Conflicts of Interest - In considering the validity of an application pursuant to s. 6.2 above, the Returning Officer will assess whether a Conflict of Interest exists, taking into consideration the criteria set out below. If the Returning Officer determines that a Conflict of Interest does exist, the Returning Officer will report such finding to the Committee, who, in turn, will factor such finding into its determination of validity pursuant to s. 6.2 above. A Conflict of Interest includes, but is not limited to, the following circumstances:

- a) a conflict of interest as defined under applicable legislation or regulatory guidance;
- b) an applicant is an elected member of a municipal, provincial or federal government;
- c) an applicant is an employee, officer, advisor or member of a board of a financial services regulatory authority that directly regulates one or more of Meridian’s businesses on a consolidated basis;
- d) an applicant is a director, officer, employee or agent of an entity that is engaged in, or has the potential to be engaged in, offering products or services that are the same as or similar to, and that directly competes with, those offered by Meridian’s businesses on a consolidated basis; or
- e) a real, perceived or potential conflict of interest that exists at the time of submitting the application, unless such conflict will be resolved, with a high degree of certainty in the opinion of the Returning Officer, by the time of the election.

For greater certainty, it is the responsibility of all applicants, before submitting an application, to have obtained all approvals from their employer(s) or other stakeholders in order to address any Conflict of Interest.

6.4 Qualified Candidates

- a) Qualified Candidates are individuals who the Nominating Committee has determined, in accordance with Meridian’s By-law No. 1, i) meet the Director eligibility requirements outlined in this Policy and applicable legislation, ii) satisfactorily meets the Director attributes and knowledge outlined in Appendix A, and iii) would best complement the current Board based on the skills and expertise gap analysis approved by the Board and outlined in the application package as “Board Selection Criteria”.

- b) Only Qualified Candidates, as confirmed by the Nominating Committee, may become a Nominee (as defined herein) and have their name placed on a ballot for election.
- c) The Committee will inform those candidates who have been determined not to be Qualified Candidates.

6.5 Interview of Qualified Candidates

- a) The Nominating Committee will interview only Qualified Candidates. The Committee may be assisted in interviewing Qualified Candidates by external advisors.
- b) All reasonable travel and accommodation costs, which have been pre-approved by the Returning Officer, will be reimbursed for any Qualified Candidate who is required to travel more than 300 kms to be interviewed.

6.6 Recommended Nominees

- a) After completing the interviews, the Committee will discuss their assessment of all Qualified Candidates. The Committee will select the best Qualified Candidates to be recommended to the Members for election to the Board (“Recommended Nominees”) and may recommend one additional back-up nominee to become a Recommended Nominee in the event that one of the selected Recommended Nominees should withdraw from the nomination and election process.
- b) The Committee, or their delegate, informs each of the Qualified Candidates, individually, whether or not the Nominating Committee has selected them as a Recommended Nominee (subject to the results of background and reference checks).

6.7 Qualified Candidates who are not Recommended Nominees

- a) Qualified Candidates who are not Recommended Nominees may inform the Nominating Committee that they wish to place their name in nomination on the ballot for election (“Non-Recommended Qualified Candidate”). To do so, Qualified Candidates must notify the Returning Officer within 48 hours of the Nominating Committee’s communication to them that they are not a Recommended Nominee.
- b) The Nominating Committee will be advised of all Qualified Candidates who have informed the Returning Officer within the 48-hour period that they wish to be a Non-Recommended Qualified Candidate and the Nominating Committee will confirm placement of their name on the ballot for election.

6.8 Background Checks and Reference Checks

- a) Except as provided below, all Recommended Nominees and Non-Recommended Qualified Candidates (collectively, the “Nominees” and each a “Nominee”) must undergo a background check and reference check conducted by or on behalf of the Returning Officer in order to have their name placed on the election ballot.
- b) Background checks may include but are not limited to criminal record check; public safety verification; credit inquiry; and verification of credentials, employment and education. The Returning Officer will assess the results and advise the Nominating Committee of any findings that may affect eligibility or suitability. A Nominee may be disqualified if the background check reveals information that, in the opinion of the Nominating Committee, would impair the Nominee’s ability to fulfill their fiduciary duties. For further clarity, incumbent directors are subject to background checks.

- c) Reference checks may include discussions with individuals who have worked with the Nominee in a professional, volunteer or governance capacity with the purpose to gather insights into the candidate.

6.9 Reporting to the Meridian Board of Directors

At the conclusion of the Nomination Process, the Chair (or the Returning Officer on behalf of the Chair) will submit a report by email to the Board of Directors, with a copy to the President & Chief Executive Officer, as to whether there will be a contested election or election by acclamation, with the names of the Recommended Nominees and Non-Recommended Qualified Candidates, if any, who are standing for election.

7.0 Director Election Process

Campaigning by candidates is prohibited. See Appendix “B” for Campaigning Rules.

7.1 Contested Election Process:

- a) If the number of Recommended Nominees and Non-Recommended Qualified Candidates (collectively, the “Nominees”) exceeds the total number of vacancies on the Board to be filled, than an election will be held in accordance with Meridian’s By-law No. 1, Section 4.04, paragraph (c).
- b) Upon receiving the list of all Nominees from the Nominating Committee, the Returning Officer will put in place a process to make available voting information for all Members eligible to vote in the election, in a reasonable time prior to the voting period and in accordance with Meridian’s By-law No. 1, Section 4.04.
- c) The Returning Officer will put in place a process to ensure electronic in-branch and on-line voting is effective and ensures one vote per Member. The electronic/online ballot will clearly indicate which Nominees are Recommended Nominees by the Nominating Committee.
- d) The results of the electronic/online voting at the end of the election period will be verified by the Returning Officer.
- e) Should the positions being filled have unequal terms associated with them, the Nominating Committee will determine which Nominee will be awarded the shortest term.
- f) Ballots will be destroyed 60 days after the results of the election are announced at the AGM.
- g) The results of the election will be (1) communicated, in writing, on a strictly confidential basis, to the Nominees and to the Board, by the Returning Officer, as soon as practicable prior to the AGM, (2) at announced to the Members at the AGM by the Returning Officer.
- h) All Nominees shall sign a form prior to their name being placed on the election ballot, agreeing to keep confidential the results of the election until after the results have been announced at the AGM.

7.2 Director Acclamation Process

- a) When the list of Recommended Nominees has been determined and after it is determined by the Returning Officer that the number of total Nominees is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled and that the election has resulted in an acclamation and that no vote is required (Meridian By-law No. 1, Section 4.04, paragraph (b)), the following process will be put in place:
 - i. the Returning Officer advises the Chair of the Nominating Committee that no vote is required.
 - ii. the Chair of the Nominating Committee advises the Nominating Committee of this outcome. The Board is advised by the Nominating Committee Chair of the names of those elected by acclamation.

- iii. as required by section 4.03(e) of By-law No. 1, in the case of an acclamation of all candidates where there are terms of office of varying length, the Nominating Committee will determine and assign terms to the candidates in its sole and unfettered discretion. In accordance with section 4.04(b) of By-law No. 1, if the number of candidates is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the candidates shall be declared by the Returning Officer at the next AGM to be elected by acclamation for a three (3) year term, unless a shorter term is otherwise specified.
- iv. the results of the election by acclamation will be announced by the Returning Officer at the AGM.

8.0 Public Announcement and News Release of Results

Following the AGM, a news release will be issued that congratulates the elected Directors and announces those featured as elected by acclamation or by contested election.

9.0 Review of this Policy

The Nominating Committee is responsible for this Policy and will annually review this Policy and recommend any changes to the Board of Directors for their approval.

Appendix “B”

Campaigning Rules

1. Campaigning by candidates is prohibited. The only written communication that may be used regarding a director candidate’s candidacy in connection with the election is the information provided to Meridian by the candidate for the purpose of a Candidate Statement of Interest. Such written communication may only be distributed by Meridian.
2. The following further defines Meridian’s guidelines:
 - a) Candidates may not use social media to announce or promote their candidacy;
 - b) Director candidates are not permitted to use traditional media (brochures, newsletters, flyers); or disseminate campaign materials including messaging via mass electronic distribution; advertising; rallies etc., to promote their candidacy in the election;
 - c) Director candidates may not organize public meetings to promote their candidacy;
 - d) Director candidates must not solicit or participate in interviews with the media in connection with the election or place any advertisements or statements regarding their candidacy in the election in any newspaper, website, or other publication or media, or permit anyone to do so, on the director candidate’s behalf;
 - e) Director candidates are not permitted to campaign on Meridian property, including ATM vestibules or inside branches. This includes physically positioning ones-self on Meridian premises to speak to those entering or attending at Branches. If third parties, beyond the control of the director candidate or Meridian choose to ignore this restriction, the director candidate may be asked to show evidence they have not encouraged the support and have made a strong attempt to discourage it; and
 - f) Director candidates are not permitted to partake in activities that would reflect negatively on the professionalism of the credit union.
3. No director candidate shall interfere with or permit any person on their behalf to interfere with the duties of Meridian employees. To minimize any potential conflict of interest, direct contact during the election between director candidates and employees including existing directors who are candidates is limited to Meridian’s Returning Officer. For further clarity, existing directors who are qualified candidates may make contact with employees during an election period, for the purposes of their required director duties (e.g. attend a Board meeting). Direct contact means in person, by telephone, or by email/text or similar. Assistance provided during the election will be limited to administrative or informational details.
4. All director candidates are expected to abide by these guidelines. The contravention by any director candidate of these guidelines may be grounds for the Nominating Committee to disqualify the candidate, as it determines under the circumstances.
